Harmony Day
21 March
Harmony Day
Celebrate Australia’s Diversity

www.harmony.gov.au
Everyone Belongs
HARMONY DAY BEGAN IN 1999

Harmony Day celebrations began in 1999 and originally involved mainly primary-school aged children and community groups. Over the years, the event has been expanded to involve the wider community.
Harmony Day

Is a day when we think about all of the different people who live in Australia.
Harmony Day

Is a day when we think about respecting all of the different people who live in Australia.
Harmony Day
Respecting others means that we understand that different people eat different food.
Harmony Day

Respecting others means that we understand that different people wear different clothes.
Harmony Day

Respecting others means that we understand that different people speak different languages.
Harmony Day
Respecting others means that we understand that different people play and listen to different types of music.
Orange is the colour chosen to represent Harmony Day

It symbolises a change in attitude from racism and discrimination to understanding peace and harmony.
Harmony Day means that...

Harmony Day
you + me = us
I AM
YOU ARE WE ARE AUSTRALIAN